

CAPTAIN HARRY L. MATHIS, USN COMMANDER NAVAL TRAINING CENTER

A native of San Francisco, California, Captain Harry L. Mathis was commissioned Ensign, U. S. Navy, upon graduation from the University of California at Berkeley in June 1954. His initial assignment was the destroyer escort USS MCGINTY (DE-365), homeported in Pearl Harbor. In July 1955, he reported to the Submarine School at New London, Connecticut, for basic submarine training, and subsequently was assigned to USS VOLADOR (SS-430) homeported in San Diego, California. In 1959, Captain Mathis was ordered to Nuclear Power School at Mare Island, California, followed by Reactor Prototype Training at Windsor, Connecticut.

After completion of training in 1960, Captain Mathis was ordered to the commissioning crews of USS SAM HOUSTON (SSBN-609) at Newport News, Virginia. In 1962, he reported as Engineering Officer of USS GEORGE WASHINGTON (SSBN-598) (GOLD), operating out of Holy Loch, Scotland. From 1964 to 1966, Captain Mathis served as the Material Officer on the Staff of Commander Submarine Squadron SIXTEEN at Rota, Spain, before reporting as Executive Officer of USS HADDO (SSN-604) homeported in Charleston, South Carolina. In 1965, he became Director Advanced Training Department at the Submarine School in New London, Connecticut.

From 1970 to 1973, Captain Mathis served as Commanding Officer of USS SCULPIN (SSN-590) homeported in San Diego. Following this assignment, he remained in San Diego as the Assistant Chief of Staff for Weapons and Sensors on the Staff of Commander Submarine Group FIVE. In 1976, Captain Mathis assumed duties as Head, Cruise Missile Branch and coordinator for the TOMAHAWK Cruise Missile Program in the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations. In August 1978, he reported for duty as the Commanding Officer of the Submarine Base at Pearl Harbor where he served until ordered to command the Naval Training Center, Orlando, Florida, in August 1980.

Captain Mathis's awards include the Legion of Merit with gold star in lieu of a second award, the Meritorious Service Medal, and the Navy Commendation Medal with two gold stars in lieu of second and third awards. He is also authorized to wear the Navy Unit Commendation ribbon, the Meritorious Unit Commendation ribbon with star, the Navy Expeditionary Medal, China Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal with star, Vietnam Service Medal with star, the Republic of Vietnam Cross of Gallantry unit award.

Captain Mathis is married to the former Mary E. McGalin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McGalin of Orlando, Florida. Mrs. Mathis is a graduate of Orlando Senior High School and the University of Florida at Gainesville. Captain and Mrs. Mathis have two daughters, Laurie, 14, and Mary, 12.

CAPTAIN LLOYD W. FERNALD, JR., U.S. NAVY COMMANDING OFFICER RECRUIT TRAINING COMMAND

Captain Lloyd W. Fernald, Jr., entered the U. S. Naval Academy in 1953 from Rockland, Maine. Upon his graduation from Annapolis in 1957, he served as Boiler Officer in the USS ROCHESTER (CA 124). He then served four years in USS SOMERS (DD 947) as ASW and Gunnery Officer followed by a tour of duty in the Fleet Operations Branch of the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations, Washington, D. C.

Upon completion of his tour in OPNAV, Captain Fernald reported as Executive Officer, USS LESTER (DE 1022). This duty was followed by his assignment as Commanding Officer, USS FIRM (MSO 444). While in command of FIRM, during their period of December 1966 to June 1968, Captain Fernald participated in four Operation Market Time patrols off the coast of the Republic of Vietnam for which he was awarded the Navy Commendation Medal with Combat "V".

Captain Fernald received a Master of Science Degree in Personnel Management from the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, in June 1969. Captain Fernald then was assigned to the Bureau of Naval Personnel where he served as Surface Warfare Assistant in the Planning and Programming Branch of the Officer Distribution Division. For this tour of duty, he received the Meritorious Service Medal.

Captain Fernald commanded the USS CONYNGHAM (DDG 17) during the 1972-73 time frame. Following this tour of duty he reported to George Washington University as a selectee for the Navy Doctoral Study Program in which he received a Doctorate in Business Administration. In 1976, he was assigned to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, Military Compensation Branch. He then reported as the Head, Military Compensation and Entitlements Branch of the Office, Chief of Naval Operations in 1978, prior to his new assignment as Commanding Officer, Recruit Training Command, Orlando, Florida.

Captain Fernald is married to the former Carol Jane LaRoue of Miami, Florida. They have two children, Mark 15, and Melissa, 13.

RM 2 FOLEY
Company Commander

NC 1 HILL
Company Commander

Nancy Vermillion
RCPO

Carol Collier
Junior Recruit

Lisa Hatch
Yeoman

Jane Reddy
EPO

Constance ...
EPO

Romona Conner
Port Watch Leading PO

...
... PO

COMMENCED TRAINING
July 1981

TRAINING UNIT K094

9 TH DIVISION

GRADUATION
31 August 1981

Allhouse, Joanne
Batz, Christina
Bliesener, Robbie
Borcherding, Dena

Bouts, Lisa
Bunch, Nancy
Cartwright, Tonya
Darden, Ruby

Daumiller, Marjorie
Denton, Lynn
Dickens, Diane
Ellis, Cynthia

Fifita, Marcia
Glosch, Lois
Grant, Ethel
Grice, Katherine

Haley, Debra
Harris, Jennifer
Harvey, Kimberly
Haverich, Tracey

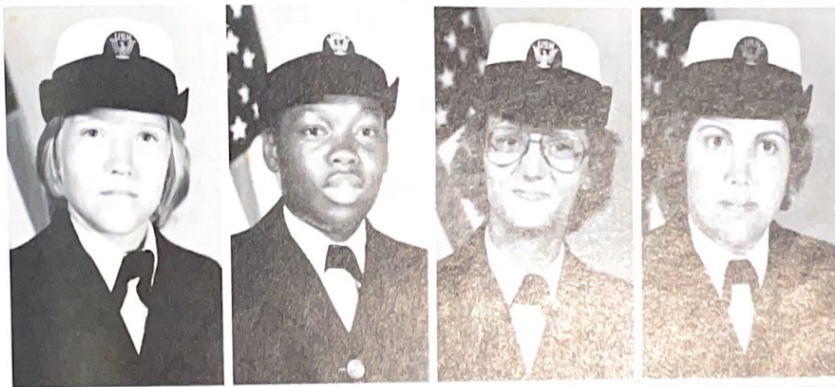

Hill, Veronica
Horton, Cecelia
Hudson, Janice
James, Erma

Kennedy, Joann
Kuba, Elizabeth
Livingston, Sheri
Maciag, Josephine

Monsrud, Dawn
Nelson, Sharon
Noonan, Vicki
Pearson, Theresa

Stok, Tammy
Rendone, Mary
Hartwig, Patricia
Hobbes, Michelle

Schneider, Deborah
Settles, Barbara
Severson, Jeanne
Siemer, Debra

Stewart, Lynne
Sundholm, Stacy
Sween, Pamela
Trainer, Juanita

Tripet, Kim
Wagner, Emma
Wilson, Jerri
Benton, January

Easton, Kathi

SMALL ARMS

FIRE FIGHTING

JOBS

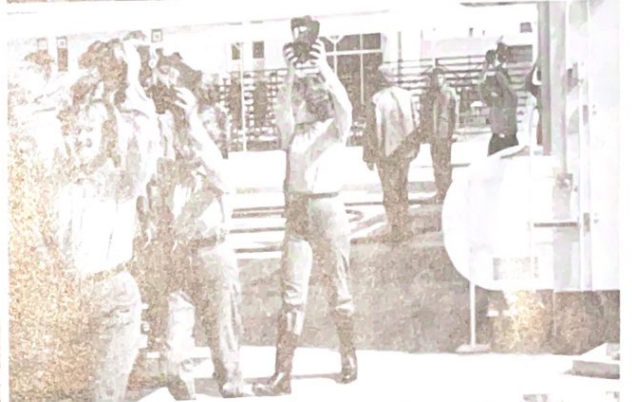

INSPECTION

GAS

P. T.

CLOTHING ISSUE

GRADUATION

