As a Naval Aviator, he served with All Weather Fighter Squadron FOUR (VFAW 4), Utility Squadron TWO (VU 2), and Fighter Squadron ONE SEVEN FOUR (VF 174). In 1962, he was assigned to duty in USS ALSTEDE (AF 48). Commodore Fox entered the Submarine Service in 1964. Since then, he has served in USS THOMAS JEFFERSON (SSBN 618), USS GEORGE BANCROFT (SSBN 643), and USS GEORGE C. MARSHALL (SSBN 654). He commanded USS GEORGE C. MARSHALL (BLUE), USS ETHAN ALLEN (SSBN 608), USS KAMEHAMEHA (SSBN 642), and USS PROTEUS (AS 19). Prior to commanding USS PROTEUS, he served as Assistant Chief of Staff, Personnel, Readiness and Training for Commander, Submarine Group FIVE. He reported to Bangor, Washington in October 1980, and became Commander, Submarine Squadron 17 on 1 January 1981 followed by Commander, Submarine Group NINE on 1 July 1981. Commodore Fox reported as Deputy Director, Strategic Submarine Division (OP-21) in the Office of the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Submarine Warfare) in September 1982. In November 1983, he took over as Director, Strategic Submarine Division (OP-21). He assumed his present duties as Commander, Naval Training Center, Orlando, on 31 May 1984. He wears the Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal with Gold Star, Navy Commendation Medal, National Defense Medal, Battle Efficiency Award, and the Sea Service Deployment Ribbon. Having completed seventeen strategic deterrent patrols, he also wears the SSBN Deterrent Patrol Insignia. Commodore Fox is married to the former Evelyn Kauffeld of South Tom's River, New Jersey. They have three children.

CAPTAIN
BARBARA R. NYCE
UNITED STATES NAVY
COMMANDING OFFICER
RECRUIT
TRAINING COMMAND

Captain Barbara R. NYCE was commissioned an Ensign in December 1962 and served her first tour as the Educational Services Officer at the Naval Security Station in Washington, D.C., from March 1963 to July 1964. She reported to the Recruit Training Command in Bainbridge, Maryland, in August 1964 for duty as the Assistant to Military Department Head. She subsequently served as Head of the Military Department, completing her tour in September 1966.

Ordered to the staff of the Commander in Chief, Allied Forces Southern Europe in Naples, Italy, in October 1966, Captain NYCE was assigned first as a Special Assistant to the Chief of Staff and later as Flag Lieutenant to CINCSOUTH. Returning from overseas in November 1968 she spent a year as a student at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California. In January 1970 Captain NYCE reported to the staff of Commander, Amphibious Forces, Pacific Fleet where she served for two years in the Resources Management Branch as the Type Commander's Budget Officer.

In February 1972 she was assigned to the Bureau of Naval Personnel serving first as Head of the BUPERS Manual Branch, next as a Branch Head, in the Compensation and Entitlement Policy Division, and finally as Action Officer in the Officer Professional Development Division. From July 1976 to July 1977 Captain NYCE attended the College of Naval Warfare at the Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island, after which she was ordered to the staff of the Chief of Naval Operations in the Systems Analysis Division and assigned to the Resource Analysis Group. Captain NYCE served as Commanding Officer, Naval Technical Training Center, Treasure Island, from June 1978 to September 1980 and as an assistant Division Director and Division Director in the Distribution Department of the Naval Military Personnel Command until October 1982, when she was assigned as the Special Assistant for Women's Policy in the Office of the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Manpower, Personnel and Training (OP-O1W)). Captain NYCE assumed command of Recruit Training Command, Orlando, on 8 June 1983.

Captain NYCE is a graduate of Towson State College in Maryland where she was awarded a B.S. degree in Education. In 1969 she was awarded a M.S. degree in Business Administration (Economics) from the Naval Postgraduate School.
