

CAPTAIN DAVID S. BOYD, U. S. NAVY
COMMANDER
NAVAL TRAINING CENTER

Captain David S. Boyd reported to Orlando as Commander, Naval Training Center, from duty on the staff of Commander, Submarine Forces, U. S. Atlantic Fleet, Norfolk, Virginia. A 1950 graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy, his career in the submarine force has included duty in the nuclear-powered attack submarine USS SKATE (SSN-578), America's first production model nuclear-powered submarine and the first of her class. During this tour, USS SKATE passed under the North Pole in 1958 and on 17 March 1959, SKATE became the first submarine to surface at the North Pole.

Captain Boyd has commanded the nuclear-powered attack submarine USS PERMIT (SSN-594); fleet ballistic missile submarine USS THEODORE ROOSEVELT (SSBN-600); and the submarine tender USS DIXON (AS-37).
